

- Top loader automatically aligns cards to eliminate operator error.
- Employees feel more satisfied when they can SEE information being accurately recorded.
- Black and red ink allows for managers to easily keep track of tardiness and early departures.
- Ready for use right out of the box.

Icon Time Systems® TL-300 Mechanical Time Clock

Designed as a cost-effective standalone unit, the TL-300 eliminates the need for a PC connection and associated network costs.

The TL-300 Mechanical Time Clock:

- Supports unlimited employees
- Is ready-to-use right out of the box
- Is compatible with multiple card formats, including standard six-column timecard
- Accommodates multiple pay periods, including weekly, monthly and bi-monthly
- Adjusts automatically for Daylight Saving Time, short months and leap year
- Tracks employee tardiness and early departures with two-color ribbon

How easy is it?

SETUP

The TL-300 is ready to go, right out of the box. Just follow the easy to understand step-by-step instructions in the User Manual, mount on the wall or table and you're ready to go.

CLOCK IN OR OUT

The electric coil print system punches payroll cards to clock employees IN and OUT for accurate timekeeping. That's it. Employees can view their last punch directly at the clock. Compatible with multiple card formats and pay periods, including weekly, semi-weekly and bi-monthly.

Benefits are key.THE TL-300 MECHANICAL TIME CLOCK:

- Tracks regular time and overtime
- Auto-detects day of the month, ensuring correct days are punched
- Prints in black and red ink to track tardiness and early departures
- Allows manager to set pay periods
- Features six language options
- Punches timecards precisely using electric coil technology
- Offers speaker output and bell relay capability
- Offers quartz accuracy with large, easy-to-read LCD display
- Hides settings panel for ultimate security
- Signals beginning and end of shifts with bell relay options
- Withstands high-volume use or harsh environments
- Mounts to wall or table
- Includes Lithium battery for accurate timekeeping— even when power is out
- Operates smoothly with steel type wheels

WHAT'S IN THE BOX?

- TL-300 Mechanical Time Clock
- Five Employee timecards
- AC power adapter
- Printed, fully illustrated User Guide
- Wall-mounting screws, with security keys
- Lithium battery
- One-year parts and labor warranty
- Free 30-day technical support

Not quite what you are looking for? Icon Time Systems offers a variety of Time and Attendance Solutions. Please visit our website at www.icontime.com or call 1.800.847.2232 option 3.

<http://icontime.com/products/hardware/em/TL-300.asp>

Icon Time Systems

15201 NW Greenbrier Parkway, Suite A1,
Beaverton, OR 97006

Tel: 1.800.847.2232
www.icontime.com